

Oath

To Nanjo Fumio, Executive Committee Chairman, Roppongi Art Night Executive Committee

As part of the application for the Roppongi Art Night 2015 Open Call Project, applicants (in the case of a corporation or other organization, its representative, executive, employee or other person engaged by it) hereby swear that the provisions of the Tokyo Metropolitan Elimination of Violent Gangs Ordinance relating to violent gangs as provided in Article 2(ii), members of violent gangs as provided in Article 2(iii) or persons associated with violent gangs as provided in Article 2(iv) do not apply to the applicant in question.

Applicants furthermore swear that, where they breach or act in a manner contrary to this oath and their participation in the Open Call Project has been revoked, they will comply with the revocation without objection.

In addition, applicants agree to enquiries being made, where the executive chairman considers it necessary, to the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Department for the purpose of confirming whether or not an applicant is a member of a violent gang etc.
